PICNIC.

On Wednesday the annual picnic in connection with the St. Catherine's School was held in favorable weather and with great success. The traditional program was gone through. Capt. Craig and Mr. Inkster on behalf of the school trustees received the guests, of whom there were prominent representatives from Prince Albert, St. Andrews, Lindsay and elsewhere.

In the morning the children were treated to the usual ride around the country in waggons. We did not happen to see the start, but the procession on returning was headed by a harmonious band in the person of a single fiddler—a good friend of old and young, who is never more at home than when adding to the enjoyment of those around him.

The school examination having been on the previous Friday there was little for the children to do but to enjoy themselves.
Before lunch, they sang several well selected hymns with touching effect and then the whole assembly began in relays to devote their attention to the excellent and abundant lunch provided by the committee, headed by Mr. James Iseliator, who with marked success had laid both land and water under contribution for the entertainment of the company. The ladies were active and attentive as usual, the waiters were always on hand and the detachment told off to keep the pot boiling did their duty manfully.

The usual games were then engaged in and there was more signing by the children. The speeches were commendably brief and Rev. Mr. Campbell in a few complimentary remarks proposed a vote of thanks to Miss McCreedy, which was heartily given. And we say that all this while and long after, the cheering strains of the fiddle were heard from the open door of the nearest domicile, and there the younger members of the company (and some of the old ones too) be it confessed) tripped it to the inspiring music of Mr. Chas. McNab and other professors of the magic bow.

In order to issue the debentures for the erection of the new school house now in course of building, a vote of the ratepayers will be again taken, in accordance with the school ordinance of 1885 and amendments thereto, a notice of which will be found in this issue.

The present Council, in accordance with the wishes of many of the ratepayers, have passed a by-law subdividing the town into four wards or polling subdivisions, so that at the next general election for municipal councillors, there will be four polling places instead of one.

Mr. Thos. Stenstrom, who has always proved to be so generous towards any institution of this town, has once more given a mark of his estimation towards the P. A. C. Road, to the support of which he has always so largely contributed, in sending them a present of the size sum of fifty dollars.

We have been much pained to hear of the death of the infant son of Mr.
Macdowall, M.P., which occurred at Winnipeg on the 10th inst. We offer Mr. and Mrs. Macdowall our respectful sympathy, which is but a feeble expression of the general and deep feeling called forth by the sad bereavement.

The following were passengers on the steamer Northwest from Edmonton to Prince Albert: J. A. Merrick and G. N.
Johnson of Winnipeg; Mrs. Giles and four children, Mrs. Dr. Hain, Mrs. Dr.
Porter, Mrs. Swanson, Miss Flett, Rev.
J. H. Howard and two children, and
Hon. L. Clarke. For Battleford, A. W.
Mackay. From Battleford, Mrs. A. J.

Last Joseph—The French Half breed of this district have recently organized a national feast, having selected St. Joseph for patron. Its first celebration, excepting the one they had about the time of the rebellion, will take place on the 28th inst. at St. Laurent, Grandin. The other options have then on a national feast and the French half breeds, who perhaps think it better to have a banner of the own, have formed a Society of "La St.
Jean Baptiste," which was common with the French Canadians, and in the future they will have celebrations of their own long live La St. Joseph!

We note with great regret the death of Mrs. Belanger, wife of Mr. H. Belanger, Hudson's Bay Company Chief Factor—Cumberland. Mrs. Belanger had been in failing health for sometime and was for medical treatment to Winnipeg, at which city her death has just occurred.
Immediately on receipt of the sad news
Mr. Davison of the H. B. C. (Mr. Clark being absent) dispatched a special courier to Cumberland to convey the painful intelligence to Mr. Belanger, for whom much sympathy is expressed in this district, where he is universally respected.

AGRICULTURAL OUTLOOK.

Though we are not all farmers, we are all more or less interested in the staple industry of the country and we are therefore gratified to be able to report that agricultural prospects in the district of Lorne continue to be very favorable. There has now been a sufficiency of moisture, the crop is everywhere heavy and all that is required is a spell of dry weather till after harvest. In isolated cases the crop is indeed rather heavy and shows a tendency to lodge—but no actual damage from this cause can yet be reported and a continuance of bright sunny weather will prevent any appreciable loss on this head.

We believe there are now few sceptics as to the necessity of early seeding and those that remain ought to be convinced by looking round. Many farmers in the fear of another dry season put down comparatively small crops at first and some of them, after seeing every evidence of a moist spring, made a second start and sowed some fields late in the season. Growth this spring having been so heavy in consequence of the prevalence of the rain, maturity is naturally slower of being reached and these few late sown fields are by no means so far advanced as we could wish to see them so near the end of July. The great bulk of the grain crop, however, is well advanced and harvest will tread closely on the heels of the hay time. Hay has been commenced in places and will be general next week. There is a good show of ridge hay, much better than for three years past and therefore the less necessity for depending on swamp grass, which is less plentiful. All root crops are in splendid condition, and indicate an extra heavy yield. New potatoes where they have been tried, are excellent in quality, plentiful in quantity and free from the sort of scab that was not uncommon last year.

The area under crop in this district this season is only moderate in extent, the drought of the last three years having deterred many from ploughing as large an acreage as they might otherwise have done. In the interval between seeding and hay-time a good breadth has been put under process of summer fallow and new land has been broken in many cases, pointing to a larger extent for next season.

Live stock of all kinds is in a flourishing state, and altogether the farmers' prospects are greatly more favorable than they have been of late years. The recent action of the Government in agreeing to accept bushel for bushel in payment of the seed grain has given universal satisfaction, which the prospective early payment of the rebellion loss claims in no way detracts from.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

We have received another letter on the seed grain question from Mr. McTaggart, but as both parties have had an equal opportunity of stating their views fully, and as the question has received ample discussion, and more especially as we are afraid our readers are becoming tired of the discussion, we have considered it better in the interests of all concerned that the matter—so far as our columns are concerned—should now be closed.

No one will be disposed to question the main theme of Mr. Wiman's essay on "Unrestricted reciprocity," published in the Mail and Globe, and delivered at Dufferin Lake on Friday. Canada is unquestionably a country very rich in natural resources; and the Americans are desirous to exploit it. But Mr. Wiman will have to talk much more to the purpose than in these picnic discourses before he will convince the Canadian people that the Americans do not expect to get very much the better of the bargain he and his friends are now pressing on the attention of the Canadian farmer. The offer is most tempting, and it is possible that the promise is not wholly without foundation; but, we repeat, the benefit attaching to Unrestricted Reciprocity may be purchased at too dear a rate. Indeed, the rate offered by these gentlemen appear to us to be a ruinous one; and, rather than purchase Commercial Union at such a price, the Confederation would do better to struggle on, if in comparative poverty, for another twenty years. This Canada, with all its vast possibilities, is now ours at all events, a possession that any young nation may be proud of; and if we sold it for a mess of pottage offered by our trading friends, what might our children say of us twenty years hence, when, their birthright sold, and the budding promise of Canadian nationality untimely cut off, Young Canada finds itself, instead of a vigorous, independent nation, placed on a level of mediocrity with some forty other States!

The Week.

MATRIMONIAL.

A pleasant event occurred at "Belvedere," the residence of Mrs. Robert Campbell, at noon to day, the occasion being the marriage of her daughter Minna, who is a niece of Capt. Craig of this place, to Mr. Hewson H. Moyer of Buffalo. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. A. McKay in the presence of a number of friends. Miss Moyer, Buffalo, acted as bridesmaid and Mr. W. M. Collins of Buffalo as groomsmen. Mr. Moyer and his bride leave for the east this afternoon to spend their honeymoon. The bride was made the recipient of a number of valuable presents, among them being a silver tea service accompanied by an address which was presented by the Superintendent, teachers and pupils of Knox Church Sabbath School, where Miss Campbell had been a teacher for some time. Weekend Sentinel Review.

It is considered more than probable Sir John will cross the Atlantic this summer.

A SCOTCH OPINION.

We have already quoted from some of the excellent letters which the special correspondent of the Glasgow Herald is now contributing to that journal in regard to the Canadian fair. In his last letter he makes the following interesting references to the Northwest:

The superiority of the hard northern wheat of the Canadian Northwest for milling purposes is clearly shown by comparing the flour it produces with the finest from Minnesota. The greater whiteness of the former is most marked, as both are obtained by the same process, we are sure that superiority is not the result of rejecting any part of the grain, but simply due to its harder texture. Manitoba flour now takes rank as the finest in the world, and its supremacy is not attributable to any difference in the milling process, but solely to the superiority of the grain. It is no mere figure of speech to say that Manitoba, and ultimately the Northwest as well, will be the world's granary. The proof of the pudding is in the eating of it, and the proof of the wheat is its capacity for making good flour. In this capacity the wheat grown here, owing to the joint influence no doubt of soil and climate, is pre-eminent, and as the best article must always command the market the wheat of Northwest Canada will be sought for all the world over.

I have even heard it remarked as a curious thing that in Manitoba and the Northwest there are few really rich specimens of the farmer class—as if that fact was a reflection on the country. It is forgotten by these critics that (1) settlers for the most part make a start with nothing or next to nothing, and (2) the country is, properly speaking, only eight or ten years old. The true comparison to make is the degree of success that a man without capital would attain in our country in the same time. How much further on is a farmer in England or Scotland—supposing it possible to start without capital, which it is not—after ten years work? He has made a living, perhaps, and paid his rent. He is not a penny richer than when he started; he has only lived. Here, under the same conditions, he makes a living, a better living than he could earn at home, and at the end of it all he gets his farm of whatever value his labor has made it, a heritage for his children. That is the difference. The English farmer toils for his landlord first, and himself afterward; the Canadian works only for himself. It cannot be too often pointed out that the difference is far less apparent at first than it becomes afterwards. And settlers have much need to bear that in mind to check their constant grumbling.—Canadian Gazette.

TOWN COUNCIL.

An adjourned meeting of the Council was held on Monday evening last. All the members present and Mayor Macarthur in the chair.

The principal business was the consideration of by-laws.

The by-law to subdivide the town into wards or polling subdivisions, and the by-law to provide for the preservation of peace and suppression of crime, were each considered in committee of the whole, after which they were read for the third time and ordered to be signed, waived and numbered.

The Council then adjourned.

For preserving and cleaning the teeth and hardening the gums, try my Myrrh Tooth Soap at Clark's Drug Store.

Mr. C. Adams showed us on Wednesday some stalks of red life wheat, grown on his own farm, which measured fully 4 feet 8 inches long, with well developed ears. As we believe this is not the longest or weightiest to be found in the place, our other friends must look out if they don't wish the H. B. cup to find its way to Haloro.

It appears that the disallowance of the Federal Government to build the Red River Valley railroad has caused quite a sensation in Winnipeg. The sensation was more reactionary of suspense evoked than actual surprise, as the news had been expected for some time. The excitement was temporary and soon cooled down, a deep rooted impression remaining that whether finally allowed or disallowed the road would be built in due time. The determined attitude of the Provincial Government on this question for the past several weeks and the strong assurances given at the turning of the road recently, all tending to strengthen the impression and create a still firmer reliance upon the promises of the provincial ministers. In some quarters it was hinted that the Federal Government could prevent operations by issuing an injunction. A prominent legal authority states that this action is out of the question, inasmuch as the local Government have the law, or rather the constitutional right, on their side.

How little the dissent manifested at Ottawa will affect the construction of the road is evidenced in the statement made by a member of the Government to a Call reporter. Speaking of the matter the gentleman in question said: "The disallowing of the act does not affect the contract that has been signed, because the act was in force when the contract was signed. It will not prevent the work from being pushed because the contractors are bound under their contract to finish the work by a certain time. The action is no surprise, it was expected, but no official notification has yet been received. The Government are making special arrangements in order to provide the necessary funds to meet the requirements of the work as it progresses and the sale of the bonds will likely be postponed until a better opportunity is offered."

It will thus be seen that the Government have no intention of abandoning the work, while for the benefit of rumor mongers it may be interesting to note that the bonds are not yet sold.

Mr. M. J. Hancy stated last evening that he was not aware that the action of the Federal authorities would exercise any particular effect. This morning one hundred men will be set to work under the supervision of Mr. J. Levis, bearing the right of way and it is expected they will complete their job by Saturday night. The surveying party are also intended to reach the boundary by Saturday.

At a meeting of the Workingmen's Conservative Association at Winnipeg, the following was adopted: Moved by G. W. Earl and J. C. Kennedy: Whereas a pamphlet is about to be given in Winnipeg to Robert Watson, M. P., in connection with his advocacy of such amendments to the bill as would be prejudicial to the interests of the laboring class, and is circulated by a large number of Conservatives, many of whom are known to be opposed to any limitation of petty retaliation on the part of the laboring class for their disabilities, and who are thus found themselves to be in a position of opportunity, Resolved, that in the opinion of this association that Mr. Watson's bill is a gross violation of the principles of justice and fair play, and that it is the duty of every citizen to prevent the passing of such a bill by the Government of Manitoba and the Northwest and thereby to prevent the passing of such a bill by the Government of Canada.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? I send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, no mother there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. BOOTS AND SHOES

A Pioneer's dilemma.

A disastrous ending of a tiresome march He discovers himself to be in a perplexing predicament.

He dies to the bosom of his family.

With a book of blank advertisements, his wife and children wonder at his pitiable condition.

The muscles of his face become distorted.

His eyes flash, his brain reels. He heaves a deep sigh of regret because he has been swindled by a high priced merchant, who sold him a pair of boots for $5 that ripped from top to bottom.

A family consultation is held. With-out a dissenting voice, they voted to buy in future from Fish.

We know of no way of judging the future but by the past, and judging by the past, the people are justified in giving us their confidence and patronage.

Small expenses and spot cash system makes the business boom at
